

James - Living whole in a fractured world

Whole people always talk to God

James 5:13-16

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

The following questions are intended to use in discussion and application of the past week's sermon.

Listening

What part of the sermon was most helpful to you or challenged you to think and/or live differently? How will you apply this message to your life?

Engaging

What has been your favorite or most memorable part of studying James? How might that stick with you as you mature in the integrity of your faith?

Beyond our passage for this weekend, verses 17-18 use the case of Elijah to further illustrate how a human being just like us could have such a powerful prayer life. The account James is alluding to is recorded in 1 Kings 17-18. Discuss the power of a prayer life and why God encourages us to rely so heavily on it.

Applying

People of the church are never alone. One of the reasons we are to seek to be strong and healthy in every aspect of our lives is so that we can be a point of support and prayer for others, especially when they are sick or suffering. Is there anyone you or your group can reach out this love of Jesus to?

Praying

In light of this message and discussion:

How can we pray for each other?
Where do you feel challenged or convicted?

What can we praise God for?
How can we pray for our church?
