

When you hear the word “Adventure” you can have an excited response, because you are always ready for one, or you can feel fear, because “adventure” might require something of you that you are not sure that you can do. Luke 5:4 represents that beginning of an “Adventure” as Jesus invites James, John, and Simon Peter to be his disciples. That was the beginning of their long steps of obedience in the same direction.