

This Psalm celebrates Israel's return from exile and we can see how the people are filled with joy! They even said that returning to their home was "like a dream!" As they considered all that God had done for them they couldn't help but sing praise and worship to God! God is a God who works on behalf of His people. He is for you, has a great purpose for your life, and He loves you!

Written by Josh McGinley, Pastor